For All the Family

"WE have tried Black-Draught ever since we have had a family and that was shortly after 1875," says Mr. R. A. Brackett, Jr., of St. James, Mo. "It is my first remedy when any of us get sick. . . . We use Black-Draught for torpid liver and stomach complaints.

"When I get sluggish and don't feel so good, I take Black-Draught—and you have to show me that there is a better medicine in Missouri. I think it is fine for indigestion or for headache. It is a splendid family remedy. My wife uses it for any stomach ailment, indigestion and biliousness. We never let the house be without it if I know it. We also give it to the children for children's complaints, colds or fever."

Keep a package of Black-Draught in the house for all the family.

Your dealer will sell you a mammoth package, containing five of the regular-size packages. It's cheaper.

IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Lynchburg.—The Y. M. C. A. drive here during the past week resulted in securing 1,404 applications for membership. The goal for the week was 2,000.

Fredericksburg.—A large flock of wild geese, flying in formation, were seen to pass over Fredericksburg Sunday on their way north. According to the weatherwise this is an infallable sign of the arrival of spring.

Fredericksburg.—The concrete road from Gloucester Courthouse to Gloucester Point, 2.7 miles on the Tidewater Trail, has about been completed and will, it is said, be open to traffic this week.

Lynchburg.—John C. Creighton, of Richmond, and Miss Dorothy Hankins, of Roanoke, have been chosen valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, for the June finals at Lynchburg College.

Roanoke.—J. B. Mansfield, of Alexandria, State secretary of the Order of Fraternal Americans, has issued a call for the annual meeting of the grand council of Virginia, to be held in Richmond on April 21.

Bristol.—R. W. Rhodes, charged with embezzling funds from the U-Save-It Packing Company of this city, was found guilty by a jury in the Corporation Court here, and his punishment was fixed at one year in the penitentiary.

Lynchburg.—An ineffectual attempt was made to crack the safe in the office of the Texas Oil Company here, but the yeggs appear to have abandoned the effort after breaking the dial off the door. The safe was mutilated so that it cannot be opened.

Staunton.—Miss Marianna T. Higgins, dean of Mary Baldwin College and principal of Mary Baldwin Seminary, was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel by the executive committee of the board of trustees. There were several speakers.

Lynchburg.—Judge Wm. R. Barksdale, of the sixth Virginia judicial circuit, is a patient again at the Virginia Baptist Hospital. Judge Barksdale went to Florida more than a month ago for recuperation and after his return came back to the local hospital.

Petersburg.—Jimmie Yarborough, of Petersburg, charged with the murder of Louis G. Miles, Jr., of Hopewell, on January 4, entered a plea of guilty to second-degree murder at the March term of the Corporation Court of Hopewell, and was sentenced to 18 years in the State penitentiary.

Washington.—The Post Office Department announced the appointment of Lizzie M. Jones as postmaster at Fonlan, Buckingham county, succeeding Michael E. Jones, deceased, and Ivy C. Porter, at Rushmere, late of Wight county, Va., succeeding William E. Howle, resigned.

Berryville.—Midshipman Frank S. Timberlake, captain of the Naval Academy wrestling team, who is the son of Mrs. J. M. H. Clagett, of "Springfield," just outside of Berryville, has gained another victory by defeating his opponent in the dual meet with West Virginia University at Morgantown.

Harrisonburg.—With the convocation address by President Lida Lee Tall, of the Maryland State Normal at Towson, the third quarter was opened at the State Teachers' College here. About twenty-five new students are enrolled. Several hundred of the girls took advantage of the opportunity to visit their homes over the week end holiday between terms.

Salem.—A three months' old girl was left in the lobby of the Lutheran Orphanage Home here, presumably by its mother. The infant was found by two coachers who were returning from a walk. The baby was wrapped in a blanket and a note signed "The deserted mother" said its name was Sallie Anne Berger, according to information received from Superintendent Sentmiers of the orphanage.

Danville.—Pete Seay, of Henry county, is being held under bond charged with shooting to death his father-in-law, Dr. Elisha Keen, well known in Henry county. Such details as have been secured from Bassett, where the shooting took place, indicate that Seay after being warned by Dr. Keen not to enter his home drew a revolver and shot the physician through the lungs as he stood arguing with his son-in-law. Henry county magistrates held the preliminary hearing and admitted the accused to bail pending the April term of the Henry county court.

Harrisonburg.—Chief "Al" Braithwaite, veteran fire fighter, who was hailed as "America's oldest fire chief" in point of service at the State convention here last summer, was able to attend church Sunday for the first time in many months. Chief Braithwaite has been confined to his home virtually ever since the State meeting here last summer and on one or two occasions his condition was described as serious.

Norfolk.—The Tobacco Association of the United States, it was announced here, will hold its next annual convention in Norfolk during the summer, with members in attendance from seven States. The sessions will continue for two days or more. Members of the association from Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky and New York will attend. T. M. Carrington, of Richmond, is the president.

Covington.—Capt. Phillip B. Taliaferre, an instructor in the 246th Artillery, stationed in Covington, delivered an address to the students of the Covington High School recently. His subject was "The Citizens' Military Training Camps." Captain Taliaferre spoke of the great advantages derived by those who annually attend these camps. "The government does not want to train you for war. They are training you so be good citizens." This was his comment on the subject.

Front Royal.—Unity Lodge, A. F. & A. M., has purchased the Rayon property on Main street for $10,000 and will shortly begin the erection of a new Masonic temple, which will be constructed of brick and it to be three stories high. A. N. Carroll, worshipful master, has appointed the following committee of building: James H. Shiser, chairman; J. M. Major, Thomas McNamara, Hugh B. Miller and Osa C. Maddox.

Winchester.—Dr. Frank T. McFaden, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, has about recovered from effects of an injury sustained a few days ago, when a small stone from a quarry blast struck him just below the inner corner of the left eye while passing along a sidewalk on his way home. He was just turning a street corner when workmen set off a blast in a sewer ditch about 200 yards away. The stone broke his eyeglasses and inflicted an injury which was very painful for a time.

Fredericksburg.—For the sixteenth consecutive year the herd of Brompton dairy farm, owned by Capt. M. B. Howe, and consisting of seventy-five head of pure bred registered Jersey and Guernsey cattle, has been tuberculin tested under government supervision and has been given a perfect record. In the entire period of sixteen years, since the first test was given, not a single animal has failed in the test, this exceptional record probably being without an equal in the State.

Luray.—While motoring into Luray in company with his wife and Mrs. John Sedwick and her two granddaughters, Miss Annie and May Pierce, of Luray, Rev. J. C. Hocks, Methodist minister of Winchester, formerly of Luray, lost control of his car and ran over an embankment near Luray. Little could be learned as to the injuries sustained, but Mrs. Sedwick was said to have been pinned under the car and probably seriously hurt. Nothing has been learned as to the injuries of the others.

Winchester.—An entire division of the "Apple Blossom" festival parade here the latter part of April will be made up of American Legion posts from points in the Shenandoah and Cumberland Valleys, according to arrangements made at the office of the director-general. Invitations sent out last week by the committee to legion posts in cities and towns of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, which are within convenient motoring distance, have been accepted, and legionnaires of those communities have notified W. A. Baker, assistant director-general, that large numbers of the former doughboys will be here to take part in the festival.

Salem.—The Roanoke County Board of Supervisors has sent a letter to each of the four assessors of the county, requesting that there be made no general increase in the assessment of agricultural lands. They state in the letter that formers are passing through critical period and that a general increase would only add to the burdens they already carry. They recommend further that consideration be given the use being made of land in making the appraisement of values. The members of the board are W. Garrison Wood, chairman and supervisor for Big Lick District; R. D. Hurt, of Central District; E. V. Morehead, of Catawba District, and Charles W. Bowles, of Cave Spring District.

Accomac.—The compilation of a report by Clerk of the Court John D. Grant, Jr., of Accomac county, for 1924, as compared to 1923, shows there was a falling off of 80 marriages and marriages during the past year. In 1923 there were 238 marriages and twenty-three divorces, or one divorce for every ten marriage licenses issued. In 1924 the clerk's office issued 180 marriage licenses, and the court granted seventeen divorces, or one divorce for every eleven marriages. Twelve of the divorces granted in 1924 were for whites and five for colored.

THE BLESSINGS OF PENTECOST

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."—Acts 2:38.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Makes People Glad.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Happened on the Day of Pentecost.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Story of Pentecost.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Holy Spirit in the Church.

I. The Day of Pentecost Fully Come (vv. 1-13).

1. Significance of the Day (v. 1).

Pentecost is from a Greek word meaning fifty. It was the feast held fifty days after the wave sheaf offering (Lev. 23:16). The wave sheaf typifies the resurrection of Christ (I Cor. 15:20-23).

2. The Gift—Holy Spirit (vv. 2-4).

On this day the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples. This does not imply that the Spirit was not in the world before this, for throughout all the ages He has been in the world giving light and life to it. It means that from that time forth He would work on a new basis, having the crucified, risen and ascended Christ to present to the world.

3. Upon Whom the Spirit Came (v. 1); cf. 1:13-15.

The twelve and others, both men and women to the number of 120, showing that the gift of the Holy Spirit was for all believers.

4. The Marks of the Spirit (vv. 2-4).

(1) External.

a. The sound of a mighty wind (v. 2). This is suggestive of the mysterious, pervasive and powerful energy of the Spirit.

b. The tongues of flame (v. 3). Each of the 120 was crowned with such a tongue. Tongues show the practical purpose of the Spirit's gift-witnessing, and the fire indicates the purifying energy burning up the dross and making effective witnessing for Christ.

c. Speaking in foreign tongues (v. 4). This was a temporary endowment for this special purpose.

(2) Internal.

This is seen in the transformation wrought in the disciples. Though a little while ago they were trembling with fear, they now have great courage and self-possession.

5. The Effects (vv. 5-13).

(1) The multitude were filled with amazement and wonder. The gift of the Spirit transforms common men into men of power and influence.

(2) Some mocked and foolishly attempted to account for this remarkable occurrence. They accused the disciples of being intoxicated. The world today mocks men and women who testify in the power of the Holy Spirit.

II. Peter's Sermon (v. 14-47).

Peter's sermon is as wonderful as the gift of tongues. It demonstrates the presence and power of the Spirit, since Peter was a Galilean fisherman without literary training. His analysis is perfect. He begins with a brief decision and scriptural explanation of the phenomenon of tongues (vv. 14-21). This is followed by a threefold argument to prove the messiahship of Jesus (v. 22-36). The conclusion is an able appeal and he baptized in the name of Jesus.

1. The Explanation (vv. 14-21).

(1) Defense of the disciples against the charge of being drunk (v. 15).

(2) A scriptural explanation. He showed that this was a partial fulfillment of what Joel had predicted would come to pass (vv. 16-21; cf. Joel 2:28-32) before the messianic judgment, viz., an outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the salvation of all who call upon the name of the Lord.

2. The Proposition, or Theme (v. 9).

This was the messiahship of Jesus.

3. The Argument (vv. 22-36). It was threefold.

(1) From Christ's works (v. 22). He was approved of God among the Jews by His miracles, wonders and signs which God did by Him in their midst.

(2) From His resurrection (vv. 23-32). The Old Testament Scriptures had foretold the death and resurrection of Christ (Ps. 16:8-10).

(3) From His ascension to the right hand of God (v. 32). The proof that He had ascended on high was the wonderful miracle of the Spirit's operation in their midst, for He had said that upon His ascension into heaven He would send forth the Spirit.

4. The Effect of the Sermon (vv. 37-47).

Many people were convicted of their sins. Some three thousand repented and were baptized.

Power of the Mind
The mind is its own place, and itself can make a heaven of hell, a hell of heaven.—Milton.

VERA

"This world is so full of a number of things
I think that we all should be happy as kings."

Easter has come and gone and with it many city "sisters, cousins, aunts" and friends. The day was perfect, and everybody seemed to be out for a good time and to show their new finery.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Childers had as their guests for the Easter tide Misses Otys Childers, Elizabeth Mays, Laura Jennings Messrs. Arnold Childers, Carl Cheatham and Carlton Woolridge, all of Lynchburg and Miss Anna Ferguson, teacher at Airy Hill, Mrs. Mollie Hamilton, of Piney Mountain and Mrs. B. D. Ferguson, of Lynchburg are also visitors of this home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinney gave their annual Easter egg hunt to the kiddies of the neighborhood. When the eggs were hunted up it was found that Clinton Childers had won the prize, a large papier machie egg filled with candy eggs, and as there was a tie between the lucky contestants, Edith Meginson and Grover Childers were each given a large chocolate egg. When the sun was sinking in the west the kiddies left for their several homes, tired but happy.

Miss Addie Childers and Messrs. Melvin and Lewis Childers, of Roanoke, spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Childers.

Mr. Wade, of Farmville, was here on a mysterious mission Easter Monday. We suspect him of having designs on one of our fairest damsels.

Mrs. Charles Wallace and children spent Easter with her home people here.

Mr. A. Nuttycombe went to Charlottesville Friday, to spend Easter with his aged mother, and incidentally her birthday also.

Mrs. Daisy Bell visited Lynchburg last week.

Messrs. Monroe Garrett, Jesse Reynolds and Kinckle Martin passed here last week with a large bunch of cattle for the market.

Mrs. Den Harris, who was reported quite ill last week, is somewhat better.

We haven't the particulars, but have just heard that Miss Ida Jones had a fall in which her hip was injured. We hope not seriously.

Mr and Mrs. James Childers, of Piney Mountain celebrated Easter by having all the children with them, viz Mr. and Mrs. Will Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Childers and family of Burlington N. C., Messrs. Ed. and Jim Childers, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lucado and children Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Marsh and child and Mrs. Alex Bingham and children Supper was served and a good time in general was indulged in.

"We cannot of course all be handsome,
And its hard for us all to be good.
We are sure now and then, to be lonely,
And we don't always do as we should.
To be patient is not always easy;
To be cheerful more difficult still;
At least we can always be pleasant;
If we make up our minds that that we will.

FOREST VIEW

A beautiful Easter morning, but have not heard of any fishing parties.

Mrs. W. L. Shields, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin, left last Tuesday for a visit on Eastern Shore and has returned to her home in Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Laughlin, and little daughter, Helias, and Miss Evie Ford, of Lynchburg, are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkley Nash, the latter's brothers and sisters, were visitors at the home of T. J. Nash last Sunday. They also spent a while with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin.

Mrs. Vernon Tanner has brought her baby home from a Lynchburg hospital and reports it better.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Tanner had several of their children and families visit them last Sunday.

Quite a lot of visiting last Sunday in the neighborhood, but your correspondent did'nt hear it in time to write it.

Mrs. R. E. Marshall is feeling better. Her son, H. B. Marshall and his uncle, W. B. Marshall paid her a visit last week.

Woodland

J. L. Harvey and Walter Coleman are enjoying a fishing trip over on the James.

Misses Arlene and Susie Cheatham spent the week-end with friends in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cheatham were visitors in the home of J. P. Marshall Sunday.

Glover Marshall and family spent the week-end with relatives in Lynchburg.

There are several new residences going up in our neighborhood. The one of Jim Bable is near completion, with J. P. Marshall as builder.

Easter Egg Hunt

Mrs. J. J. Fore, gave an egg hunt Monday for her grand-children and their little friends. Among those present were Mesdames Gladys Lucaco, Della Mitchell, Lillie Dinkins, Margaret Fore, Josie Marshall, of Lynchburg; J. A. Fore, of Petersburg, Della Dickerson of Pamplin. Thelma, Twyman, Ollie, Mae, Myrtle, and Hilda Dinkins, Elizabeth, J. C. and Margaret Mamie Fore. Margaret, Doris, and Gaynell Fore of Petersburg, Lacy Dickerson Jr. of Pamplin, Eugene and Winfred Marshall of Lynchburg. Edith and Doris Lucado, Tommie and Gertrude Mitchell, Myrtle, Katherine and Elizabeth Blackwell, Franklin, Harry, Ray, Jesse, Dot and Woody Lee, Julian Woolridge, L. E. and Marion Giles, Delfy, Felis and Avis Godsey, and Hilda Wagers. The prize was won by Harry Lee.
